

ANTI-MILITARISM IS KOREA'S HOPE

Council of Churches Sure
Japan's Progressive Element Will Bring New Era.

NEW YORK, July 16.—A statement concerning the situation in Korea has been given out today by the commission on relations with the orient of the federal council of the Churches of Christ in America, of which commission William I. Haven is chairman and Sidney L. Gulick is secretary.

Fight for Independence.

The statement says, in part: "The recent movement for independence was started by educated Koreans anxious to save the people of their country from national extinction and for the recovery of many of the elements of justice, such as the use of their own language, freedom of the press, of speech and assembly, which have been denied them by Japan."

"From March 1 to April 11, 351 Koreans were known to have been killed and wounded. The indignities to a few foreign missionaries and especially the arrest and imprisonment of the Rev. E. M. Mowry, are already well known in America. The latest reports are to the effect that the arrest and torture of suspected persons by the police were continuing and that a reign of terror prevailed."

Premier Promises Betterment.

"That the foregoing policy of the federal council's commission has met with an appreciative response from the Japanese government is evident from the following cablegram just received from the Honorable Takahashi Hironaka, of the Japanese cabinet: "I desire to assure you that the report of abuse committed by agents of the Japanese government in Korea has been engaging my most serious attention. I am fully prepared to look squarely at actual facts. As I have declared on various occasions, the regime of administration inaugurated in Korea at the time of annexation, nearly ten years ago calls for substantial modification to meet the altered conditions of things. A comprehensive plan of reorganization with this object in view has already been completed."

"In view, however, of the recent improvement in the situation, the contemplated reform can now be, in my estimation, safely introduced, and will be carried into effect as soon as the legal requirements of procedure to make them definitive shall have been completed."

"The commission on relations with the orient has sought, in the months that it has been studying the situation, by the instrumentality of friendly methods and conferences with officials and other prominent Japanese in America, to influence that might secure constructive and permanent relief for the Koreans."

Confirms Assurances.

The commission also makes public part of a cablegram from Viscount Uchida, minister of foreign affairs, in Tokyo, who, he confirms the assurances of Premier Hara that the latter is striving to remedy the Korean trouble. The message thanks the Americans for their "cordial and friendly spirit," and asks for a continuance of their "sane and moderate attitude."

"There is every reason to believe," says Chairman Haven and Mr. Gulick in conclusion, "that the Hara and his colleagues will exert their fullest power to rectify wrongs and inaugurate a new era. In Korea, Americans should give the strongest possible moral support to the progressive, anti-militaristic elements in Japan. This we can do not by wholesale condemnation of the Japanese government and people, but by distinguishing between the reactionary, autocratic forces that have too largely dominated her policies and leaders that are now coming to the fore. Hope for Korea, and, indeed, for China and the whole world lies in the overthrow of militarism in Japan, as in every land."

PERSHING WILL HEAD LONDON VICTORY MARCH

Composite Regiment of Yanks Will Join Allied Troops in Celebration July 19.

LONDON, July 15 (via Montreal).—A composite regiment of the United States soldiers, 3,400 strong, headed by Gen. Pershing, will lead the great victory march through London on Saturday, July 19, according to the completed program announced tonight. The decision to have the allied troops march in alphabetical order as to nations resulted in the place of honor going to the Americans. The parade will take an unusual route, starting from Hyde Park chiefly and proceeding along the south side of the Thames.

After the Belgian contingent, the French, a thousand strong, will follow, and then a small body of Italians, a detachment of Japanese and other allied representatives. The forces of the British empire will march behind the allied contingents.

Admiral Sir David Beatty, head of the navy; Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig and other generals will lead the British army, in which all arms will participate, including the women's corps and nurses, all with their massed standards and their colors and bands and pipes. The Australians, South Africans and Indian troops will also march in the parade.

One of the most impressive moments will be in Whitehall, where the procession will salute the stately memorial to the dead, designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens. Special private accommodations have been made for 4,000 female relatives and children of the officers and men killed in the war and also for the wounded.

POSTAL AND CUSTOMS RULE PROPOSED BY HUNS

PARIS, July 15.—The departure of Dr. Theodore Lewald, head of a German commission, from Versailles on Saturday followed a discussion between Dr. Lewald and the interallied Rhineland commission as to a proposal made by Germany that no difference should be made as regards postal and customs regulations between occupied and unoccupied Germany. No reply was given the German proposal and it is believed it will be sent later. The allied representatives, however, seemed unwilling to accept the German view.

When Dr. Lewald left Versailles it was said he was going to Berlin to receive further instructions from his government and would return in a few days.
